Nestled among glorious shade trees along a babbling brook, come relive the Fur Trade Era in South Dakota!

Maps and registration information on back

Opening Ceremony June 19, 7:00pm

Closing Ceremony June 25, 11:00am

Long Term closes 6:30pm June 19

Open to the Public June 18-19:
10:00am-5:00pm

Short Term hours June 20-25:
8:00am-9:00am & 4:00pm-5:00pm

Come, sit a spell and enjoy Seminars, Demonstrations, Auctions, and other Entertainment, or just ol' fashioned Fur Trade hospitality.

Pre-1840 Attire and Lodging (in primitive camps) required.

Partake in demonstrations like brain tanning, bead or quillwork, scrimshaw, blacksmithing, flint knapping, or even pipe making with artisans there to lead you.

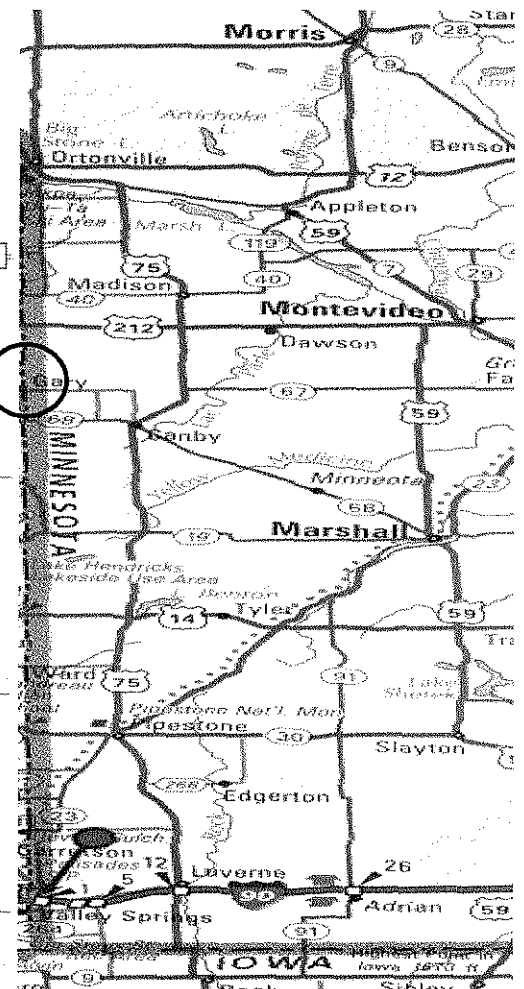

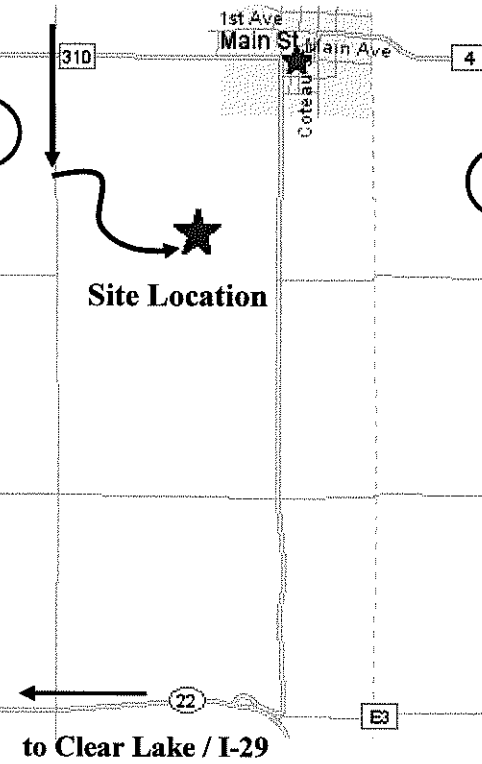

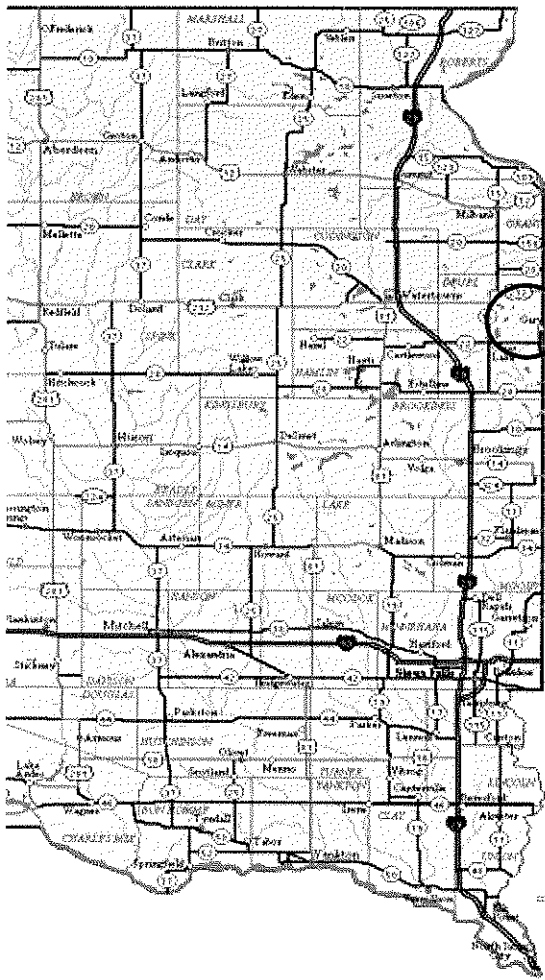

Prove yourself a Curly Wolf or simply show you're a Flash-In-The-Pan with Shooting, Hawk & Knife, Cooking, Archery, and other Games for Young & Old!

Long, Short, and Tin Tipi camps available.
Wood, Water, Hooters, and Showers on site. Grocery runs daily.

Early set-up available, no additional fee – Contact Booshway.

Pets, animal parts, etc must be cleared with SD Game, Fish, & Parks (605-882-5200) &/or Animal Industry Board (605-773-3321). Call for current state rules & regulations before entering South Dakota.
